

- C) On the evening of March 18th 2022 Steven Curtis Leech had an anxiety attack. As a result the decision was made to place Mr. Leech under suicide watch.
- D) No anxiety medication was provided to Mr. Leech.
- E) Mr. Leech became overwhelmed and began to strike the wall with his head.
- F) A response team under Sgt. Garcia's supervision was sent in. Officers proceeded to tackle Mr. Leech pinning his arms beneath him. Two officers, (names unknown), held Mr. Leech down. Two other officers, (names also unknown), slammed Mr. Leech's head into the ground and repeatedly struck him with their fists.
- G) This incident was recorded on two separate video cameras. One hardwired into the wall of the observation cell, and the other, a handheld camcorder carried by a member of the response team.
- H) Mr. leech was wheeled away in a restraint chair to the hole, where pictures were taken of his face, and he was examined by nurse Potter.
- I) This incident constitutes a clear violation of Mr. Leech's VIII Amendment right of protection against cruel and unusual punishment.

3.

Wherefore the Plaintiff comes now and petitions the court for summary judgement in his favor.

Dated this 15th day of February 2024.
